DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. Claims 1-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.
 - a. Claims 1 and 17 recite that the rods are "lockable; however, this functional language is unsupported by the claimed structure. Therefore the claim is not definite.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Palenik 111 (3987579).

Palenik discloses an universal fixture having a plurality of dual axis clamps (38) each rotatably and slidably secured rods (fig.3), and base (13). Palenick 111 discloses enough parts to anticipate all claim pluralities.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments filed 4/6/04 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

a. The rejection stands because the 112 was not properly addressed. The applicant should recite some structure to support the apparatus being lockable. The term clamp is mentioned however, what part or structure accomplishes the function being recited. The arguments are noted by the applicant but they should mention the element number in the drawing and clearly point it out in the specification. It is well known to use friction fits to lock something so without structure this all the applicant will have as well. This is not a simple matter since patentability is being based on this limitation.

Conclusion

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
